medjazz waterfront festival '05

Sat 14 – Sun 15 May
For the second year running Chatham comes alive for a spectacular weekend of live music featuring just about every style of music that crosses a jazz vibe.

After the unparalleled success of Waterfront 2004, another stunning line-up of top live acts will again be playing all around Chatham town centre and focusing on a Waterfront 'music village'. Things kick off with a great concert at The Brook Theatre on the evening of Saturday 14 May, featuring Kent Youth Jazz Orchestra with special star guests. Then its music all-day Sunday from 12 noon 'til late.

Venues include The Brook Theatre and all across the town centre, focusing on the tented 'music village' on Chatham Waterfront. The day will close with a spectacular finale concert at The Central Theatre.

See special leaflets for details of bands and times.

Buy your festival Stroller Ticket and enjoy free entry to all events (except The Central Theatre finale concert where your Stroller Ticket price will be refunded as a discount off top price tickets)

Call 01634 338338

WED 18 MAY 7.30PM
Earthfall Dance Company present

At Swim Two Boys

Inspired by Jamie O'Neill's award winning novel of the same name and set in Ireland in 1916, the work juxtaposes the developing love affair between two young men with political turmoil in Ireland and the slaughter on the Western Front. Staged in a slowly filling lake (yes, real water on stage!) in front of a slow falling waterfall, the performance reflects back to us with incredible emotional power. Incorporating both live and archive film footage, live music, dance, and text, this is Earthfall at its most evocative and moving.
Earthfall are a 21st century phenomenon - The Guardian
Not suitable for under 14s

FRI 27 MAY 7.30PM

Volcano Theatre Company Presents

Hitting Funny

It's stand-up show but its not. Hitting Funny is a one man show about a stand-up comedian called Chris Rich and although it has the look and feel of a stand-up gig it is in fact a play about a man torn between wanting to be funny and wanting to say something meaningful. Uniquely interactive, this play is also about you - the audience, what you find funny, what offends you and what you want to see when you go to watch a stand-up. Controversial, funny and at times moving this daring piece of drama is a must see.

Warning: contains explicit material of an adult nature. Over 18s only

Tickets £8, concessions £6

SAT 28 MAY 2PM

Blunderbus Theatre Company Presents

The Emperor's New Clothes

The clock strikes twelve, just as the Royal procession appears in the distance. An excited crowd gleefully await the Emperor's arrival. As the procession draws near, with all its pomp and splendour, the crowd falls silent. Then, slowly, - ever so slowly, a small voice from the crowd calls out, "Mummy, I can see the Emperor's bum!" Medway's very own professional children's theatre company is proud to present this funny and intelligent adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's classic tale, ideal for 5 to 8 year olds.
See it to believe it!

Booking information

Box Office Hours
The Box Office is open Monday to Saturday 10am to 5pm or until 15 minutes after curtain up on performance nights.

By Credit Card
Telephone the Box Office after 10am and pay for your tickets by Visa or Mastercard. All transactions must be over £5. Tickets can be posted to you on the same day for a 50p charge or kept at the Box Office for collection on the day. Please be patient when phoning the Box Office during busy periods (i.e. around show times) as calls are answered in strict rotation.

Postal bookings
When booking by post, please enclose a stamped addressed envelope so that tickets can be forwarded to you. Cheques should be made payable to Medway Council. Please print your name, address, daytime telephone number and cheque card number on the reverse.

Reservations
Tickets must be paid for in person or by post within three days of reservation or 30 minutes prior to curtain up, whichever is the sooner. Seats not paid for after this time will be released.

Return of tickets
Tickets cannot be exchanged or money refunded. Patrons are advised to check their tickets at the time of purchase.

Resale of Tickets
Tickets may be left at Box Office for resale, however The Brook Theatre cannot guarantee their sale and can only offer them for resale after all the theatre's own seats have been sold.

Discounts
The Brook Theatre's Box Office reserves the right to introduce special offers and discounts in accordance with the hirer's wishes without notice; these will not apply to tickets already purchased before the announcement. Availability of concessions will also vary according to the hirer's wishes. Please contact The Brook Theatre Box Office for details.

Facilities for customers with disabilities
There is wheelchair access to The Brook Theatre either by the electronic platform on the front steps or via the ramped entrance on Whiffens Avenue. On the ground floor there is wheelchair access to the cinema, Box Office, café, gallery and toilet for disabled persons. A lift in the ground floor foyer can then provide further access to the Main Theatre, the Studio Theatre and the theatre bar on the first floor.

Four wheelchair spaces per performance are available in the Main Theatre and one in the Studio Theatre.

An infra red loop hearing system is fitted in the main theatre. Patrons wishing to use this system should see Box Office to collect a hearing device. A loop system is also fitted in the studio theatre, conference room and large dance studio. Patrons wishing to use the system in these rooms should switch their hearing aids to T.

A Minicom system is available at Box Office on 01634 408603.

Doors Open
Doors open 30 minutes before curtain up. The licensed bar is open during performances and interval drinks can be ordered before the performance.
